

HOUSE RESOLUTION 128
By Phillips

A RESOLUTION to honor and recognize Ronald H. Adcock on the occasion of his retirement.

WHEREAS, it is appropriate that the members of this legislative body should honor those persons who in their years of work have performed with uncommon devotion and enthusiasm; and

WHEREAS, Ronald H. Adcock is one such estimable person who has served with probity for years as Director of Tennessee Technology Center at Shelbyville; and

WHEREAS, Ronald H. Adcock is an active and important part of the community and his profession, participating in numerous endeavors; he was previously employed by the SpaceProgram in Huntsville, Alabama from 1963-1972; and

WHEREAS, Director Adcock has astutely served the Tennessee Technology Center from 1978 to the present as a Drafting Instructor, Assistant Director and finally as Director; and

WHEREAS, Ronald H. Adcock has also devoted his time to his own personal development; he graduated from Community High School in Unionville, and earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in Industrial Management from Middle Tennessee State University in 1963; and

WHEREAS, Ronald Adcock earned his Master's degree in Vocational and Technical Education from Middle Tennessee State University, receiving the first degree in that field conferred by the University; and

WHEREAS, Ronald H. Adcock exemplifies the spirit and allegiance to family and community that is characteristic of a true Tennessean; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Adcock guided the Tennessee Technology Center at Shelbyville through a period of growth and the center's expansion from eight to twelve programs: the Center has recently hosted an audit for COE Accreditation, receiving an excellent report; and

WHEREAS, because of his leadership, Tennessee Technology Center-Shelbyville now enjoys an all-time high enrollment of 670; and

WHEREAS, the Honorable Clarence (Pete) Phillips will lead his district in wishing Director Adcock a fond farewell, while simultaneously feeling sad to see him depart; and

WHEREAS, throughout his estimable career, Ronald Adcock has demonstrated a remarkable ability to motivate others to reach their potential, winning the respect and admiration of his peers; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED FIRST GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, That we extend to Ronald Adcock our heartfelt wishes for a happy and fulfilling retirement and success in his future endeavors. Additionally, we thank him for his outstanding leadership with the Tennessee Technology Center at Shelbyville.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
